

Digitizing table

Green led who indicates that the digitizer is working

Positioning cross mark

Red led lightening when the pointer is in the active digitizing area

"0" button -for digitizing graded points, technical elements, letters and comands

"1" button -for digitizing curve points

"2" button -for digitizing notches

"3" button -for digitizing internal technical points

"4" button - for digitizing grading

"5" button - for digitizing internal lines

"6" button - for digitizing dart edge points

"7" button - for UNDO

"8" button - for digitizing technical points pocket type

"9" button - for digitizing symmetry axes

"A" button - for starting to digitize a new pattern

"B" button - to end up digitizing a pattern

"C" button - for digitizing the grain axis

"D" button - for starting to digitize an auxiliary draw

"E" button - to end up drawing an auxiliary pattern

"F" button - to end up digitizing

